

A GENUINE DRESS GOODS SALE

As We Have Said Before, "Our Stock-taking Prices" Are Genuine Bargains.

Now it is DRESS GOODS. We don't want to invoice a single piece of goods that is the least bit old.

We have taken from this stock about fifty pieces—some of the best fabrics in our department—and marked them at such prices that will realize us cash on the lot in short order.

Just Notice These Values.

At 29c, six pieces of Challies and Waistings, values 50c and 60c per yard.

At 29c, three pieces of Suitings, sold formerly for 50c per yard.

At 39c, nine pieces of Plaids, Suitings and Waistings. Have sold and are well worth today 50c or 60c per yard.

At 49c, six pieces of Wool Challies with Satin Stripes. Beautiful goods for evening dresses, waists or kimono. Have sold for 75c and $1.00 per yard.

At 49c, four pieces of Viyella Flannel, probably the best waisting flannel on the market. Positively non-shrinkable. Never sold for less than 75c per yard.

At 69c, four pieces of Suitings, 50 and 54 inches wide, sold for 1.00 and 1.25 per yard.

At 87c, four pieces of Suitings, some as wide as 64 inches and sold for 1.50 per yard.

Just keep watch of our "ad." for the next few weeks. It will mean money to you.

THIS STORE WILL BE CLOSED ALL DAY MONDAY.

Flashes of genius appear unexpectedly; also flashes of lightning. Several Barre people report a thunder storm early last evening, with quite vivid lightning up and thunderous roars. Also yesterday morning early there was an other storm. It is a rare occurrence in midwinter.

Due to darkness in the coat room at the old Masonic hall last evening several garments were exchanged and if the parties who received the wrong articles of apparel will call at the home of George Troup, 32 Pearl street, the mistakes will be rectified.

Will Jackson, while at work at the Leland & Hall granite plant Thursday had all the bones in his left hand broken. Just a little over a year ago he had the muscles in his same arm all torn out, so it leaves him almost helpless in that arm. Dr. W. E. Lasele is attending him.

A handsome illustrated programme for the re-dedication exercises of the Congregational church has been issued. It contains cuts of the enlarged building, of the old structure and of the pastor. The programme of events is given in full, together with the dedication hymn written by the pastor for the occasion.

Miss Annie Stuart of Allen street was given a very pleasant surprise last evening, when 16 of her friends dropped in to call on her. Games were played and boxes sung. Refreshments were served and a general good time enjoyed by all present. Before breaking up, Alex. McCaskill, in behalf of those present, presented Miss Stuart with a beautiful muff. Miss Stuart was too much surprised to do anything more than thank her friends for their gift.
